

The winners of the second round of the grant competition “Civil society cooperation platforms”. The competition is implemented by the Askold and Dir Foundation and administered by ISAR Ednannia within the framework of the project "Strong Civil Society of Ukraine – A Driver of Reforms and Democracy", funded by Norway and Sweden.

№	Organisation	Project Objectives and Expected Results	Sum in NOK
1	Ronald McDonald House Charities Ukraine	The project aims to establish a cross-sectoral advocacy platform to standardize family-centered care practices in pediatric hospitals across Ukraine. The platform will bring together the medical community, civil society organizations, and government representatives to jointly develop an evidence-based Roadmap and sign memoranda on the implementation of patient-centered protocols in regional hospitals	213 194,94
2	NGO Centre "Women's Perspectives"	The project aims to counter sexism, discrimination, and the normalization of violence in the media through monitoring television content, advocating for action by the National Council on Television and Radio Broadcasting in response to identified violations, and engaging with content producers on the societal impact of their content	213 194,94
3	CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION "INTERNATIONAL CHARITABLE FUND "ANGELS OF FREEDOM"	The project aims to establish the interregional “Educational Outpost” platform, bringing together communities from Chernihiv and Sumy regions and partner organizations to jointly modernize safe learning spaces, mobilize resources, and scale up proven solutions	200 957,55
4	COMMUNITY PROJECT OFFICE	The project aims to establish a collaborative platform bringing together at least 25 communities, civil society organizations, tradition bearers, and local producers to preserve and document gastronomic heritage, exchange practices, and develop sustainable cross-sectoral partnerships	213 194,94